Judaism, Christianity, and Islam: The Classical Texts and Their Interpretation, Volume II 2006 this book investigates the manner in which the qur an and sunna depict female personalities in their narrative literature providing a comprehensive study of all the female personalities mentioned in the qur an the book is selective in the personalities of the sunna examining the three prominent women of ahl al bayt khadija fatima and zaynab analysing the major

sources of imami shi'i islam including the exegetical compilations of the eminent shi'i religious authorities of the classical and modern periods as well as the authoritative books of shi'i traditions this book finds that the varieties of female personalities are portrayed as human beings on different stages of the spiritual spectrum they display feminine qualities which are often viewed positively and are sometimes commendable traits for men at least as far as the spiritual domain is concerned the theory particularly regarding women's humanity is then tested against the depiction of womanhood in the hadith literature with special emphasis on nahj al balagha contributing a fresh perspective on classical materials this book will be of interest to students and scholars of islamic studies women's studies and shi'i studies

International encyclopaedia of Islam 2020-02-20 this book focuses on the time before the quran and the emergence of islam the research delves into the origin of the quran using its verses alongside investigative works which support various new theories the quran is a written document which according to recent discoveries such as the recently discovered world's oldest quran manuscript at the university of birmingham can be traced to the lifetime of prophet mohammad it focuses on the time preceding islam and highlights the relationships that are pivotal for understanding the development of islam the danger posed by false interpretations of the quran has become increasingly more serious from first appearance of islam until today the result of which we can see clearly in our current world hence the quran itself is the most important document to be researched and studied for resolving the problems caused by its false interpretation
