Marvel-Verse 2024-01-10 john marvel assistant by thomas nelson page is a novel thomas nelson page 1853 1922 was an american lawyer and writer he also served as the u s ambassador to italy from 1913 to 1919 under the administration of president woodrow wilson during world war i in his writing page popularized the southern tradition of the plantation genre excerpt i shall feel at liberty to tell my story in my own way rambling along at my own gait now going from point to point now tearing ahead now stopping to rest or to ruminate and even straying from the path whenever i think a digression will be for my own enjoyment i shall begin with my college career a period to which i look back now with a pleasure wholly incommensurate with what i achieved in it which i find due to the friends i made and to the memories i garnered there in a time when i possessed the unprized treasures of youth spirits hope and abounding conceit as these memories with the courage to use a mild term that a college background gives are about all that i got out of my life there i shall dwell on them only enough to introduce two or three friends and one enemy who played later a very considerable part in my life

The Marvel Cyclopedia 1893 no weapon platform sank more u boats in the second world war than the allied aircraft whether it was an american plane operating from american escort carriers us aircraft from royal air force bases or british aircraft from bases throughout the world these officers and men became the most decisive factor in turning the tide of the battle of the atlantic against the german submarine threat while the german crews could threaten escort vessels with torpedoes or avoid them by remaining submerged their leaders never developed an effective strategy against aircraft however the allied aircraft did not enjoy much early success british canadian and australian air crews that fought the u boats from 1939 until 1941 achieved few triumphs they possessed neither the aircraft nor the bases necessary to deliver consistent lethal attacks against german submarines in 1941 the royal air force finally began implementing an effective aircraft response when it initiated training on the american built consolidated b 24 liberators supported by other types then in service these four engine bombers would prove to be decisive with america's entry into the war the united states navy and the united states army air forces also began employing liberators against the u boats so that by mid 1943 the admiral karl dönitz commander of u boat forces withdrew his submarines from the north atlantic in recognition of the allied aircraft's new dominance from dönitz's retreat to the end of the war allied aircraft continued to dominate the u boat battle as it shifted to other areas including the bay of biscay dönitz eventually ordered his u boats to remain on the surface and engage allied aircraft as opposed to submerging this approach did lead to the demise of some allied aircraft but it also resulted in even more u boat being sunk most critically dönitz acknowledged with his new policy that he knew of no tactics or weapons that would defend his submarines from allied aircraft in the end it was a matter of choosing whether his submariners would die submerged or die surfaced either way allied aircraft prevailed the allied air campaign against hitler's u boats is the most comprehensive study ever undertaken of this most crucial battle which helped turn the battle of the atlantic irrevocably in favour of the allies

MS-DOS to the Max 1993 while not as famous as their larger and faster sister ships such as the essex and yorktown class carriers escort carriers made an enormous contribution towards allied victory both in the pacific and atlantic theatres rather than relying on size or speed it was their sheer numbers that made them so effective indeed the casablanca class escort carrier was the most produced aircraft carrier in history in partnership with the royal navy they provided the backbone of allied anti submarine efforts in the atlantic finally and irrevocably turning the tide of the war against the u boats in 1943 in the pacific they provided the air cover for the series of landings which led to the doorstep of japan by 1945 these robust ships faced submarine air and even surface threats from the japanese but proved able to contend with everything thrown their way fully illustrated with contemporary photographs and unique specially commissioned artwork this book shines a new light on these unjustly overlooked workhorses of the us navy ships that helped usher in the allied victory over the axis powers in the atlantic and pacific
