ADC's Street Map of Washington County, Maryland 1992 reveals the little known history of one of history's most famous maps and its maker tucked away in a near forgotten collection virginia and maryland as it is planted and inhabited is one of the most extraordinary maps of colonial british america created by a colonial merchant planter and diplomat named augustine herrman the map pictures the mid atlantic in breathtaking detail capturing its waterways coastlines and communities herrman spent three decades travelling between dutch new amsterdam and the english chesapeake before eventually settling in maryland and making this map although the map has been reproduced widely the history of how it became one of the most famous images of the chesapeake has never been told a biography of a map in motion uncovers the intertwined stories of the map and its maker offering new insights into the creation of empire in north america the book follows the map from the waterways of the chesapeake to the workshops of london where it was turned into a print and sold transported into coffee houses private rooms and government offices virginia and maryland became an apparatus of empire that allowed english elites to imaginatively possess and accurately manage their atlantic colonies investigating this map offers the rare opportunity to recapture the complementary and occasionally conflicting forces that created the british empire from the colonial and the metropolitan to the economic and the political to the local and the atlantic this is a fascinating exploration of the many meanings of a map and how what some saw as establishing a sense of local place could translate to forging an empire

ADC Atlas Prince George's County, Maryland 2007-06-01 the pulitzer prize winner explores the literary joys of sci fi and superheroes gumshoes and goblins and the stories that bring us together i read for entertainment and i write to entertain period such is the manifesto of michael chabon an author of indisputable literary renown who maintains a fierce appreciation of the seductive arts of so called genre fiction in this lively collection of sixteen critical and personal essays the author of the amazing adventures of kavalier clay champions the cause of westerns horror and all the stories comics and pulp fiction that get pushed aside when literary discussion turns serious whether he's taking up superman or sherlock holmes poe or proust chabon makes it his emphatic mission to explore the reasons we tell one another tales throughout chabon reveals his own blooming as a writer from the mysteries of pittsburgh to the yiddish policeman's union he is living proof of his theory that the stories that give us great pleasure are in many ways our truest best art the building blocks of our shared imagination and in maps and legends he makes an inviting case for bridging the gap between popular and literary writing o the oprah magazine this ebook features a biography of the author
