pacific war 1942 1945 this book draws on the huge body of available narrative military documents bureaucratic records and personal accounts of combatants and civilians including diaries memoirs and collected correspondence most of which have previously been either unknown or unavailable to non japanese readers it examines how the collapse of the japanese empire as a whole not only through its ultimate military defeat in the region but also due to its failure as an occupier from the very beginning nakano explains the significance of the japanese occupation of southeast asia as a learning experience for the occupiers whether soldiers on the frontlines or civilians on the home front he uses a synthesis overlay and juxtaposition of a selection of these narratives to reassemble the narrative as a whole this brings into focus
