opens the way to explore culture and knowledge to participate in cultural life and to enjoy literature culture and knowledge are parts of our education and are central to our ability to think critically on any topic studying literature plays a central role in developing these skills according to hesse 2002 p 50f there are some elementary goals of literacy teaching such as 1 focussing on specific parts of the text 2 the use of methods which support an active and productive reading behaviour 3 a change of intensive and extensive phases of reading and 4 the relation to students interests literature studies offer students opportunities to work on carefully chosen texts provided by the teacher results from the pisa studies of 15 year old poor readers in germany illustrate the importance of finding adequate literature for the efl classroom in our term paper we want to examine how far sandra cisneros the house on mango street is relevant for the efl class the questions which chances and opportunities the novel bears and for which purpose its plot is useful to discuss different topics are in the centre of interest therefore the term paper shows didactical and methodological aspects i e how the book relates to the curriculum as well as to the students lives which learning strategies and social forms can be applied therefore we have provided several tasks to be used in the efl class which all bear a differentiated analysis on the one hand the tasks have a tendency towards creating a relationship between the text and its reader on the other hand they enlarge students abilities to use various learning strategies and methods we can draw the one of the most dazzling and devastating novels i ve read in a long time readers of fruit of the drunken tree will surely be transformed san francisco chronicle simultaneously propulsive and poetic reminiscent of isabel allende listen to this new author s voice she has something powerful to say entertainment weekly a mesmerizing debut set in colombia at the height pablo escobar s violent reign about a sheltered young girl and a teenage maid who strike an unlikely friendship that threatens to undo them both seven year old chula and her older sister cassandra enjoy carefree lives thanks to their gated community in bogotá but the threat of kidnappings car bombs and assassinations hover just outside the neighborhood walls where the godlike drug lord pablo escobar continues to elude authorities and capture the attention of the nation when their mother hires petrona a live in maid from the city s guerrilla occupied slum chula makes it her mission to understand petrona s mysterious ways but petrona s unusual behavior belies more than shyness she is a young woman crumbling under the burden of providing for her family as the rip tide of first love pulls her in the opposite direction as both girls families scramble to maintain stability amidst the rapidly escalating conflict petrona and chula find themselves entangled in a web of secrecy that will force them both to choose between sacrifice and betrayal inspired by the author s own life and told through the alternating perspectives of the willful chula and the achingly hopeful petrona fruit of the drunken tree contrasts two very different but inextricably linked coming of age stories in lush prose rojas contreras has written a powerful testament to the impossible choices women are often forced to make in the face of violence and the unexpected connections that can blossom out of desperation seminar paper from the year 2018 in the subject american studies literature grade 10 university of potsdam course chicana life writing language english abstract the title of the book the house on mango street raises expectations and creates questions of its content and intent will it be the story of a family in the south where mangos grow will we meet different characters who inhabit the same house one after another or will the house be one of its kind on this special street in actuality sandra cisneros tells the story of a girl esperanza who lives in a house set on mango street in a fictional part of chicago the 44 vignettes have their roots in stories cisneros heard saw or experienced in real life the singular in the title should therefore be a plural because a great number of houses feature in the book esperanza visits family and friends while searching for her own future the house on mango street is a growing up story yet buildings do not grow into anything they are falling into disrepair more often than not so why does a house feature so prominently in the title of a book on growing up i will argue that the house in this book can be read as the female body in a patriarchal society its immobile state an accusation in the face of a need for change in 1984 sandra cisneros published the house on mango street and became one of the first widely read writers of the chicana movement a movement that filled the void left for women of mexican heritage by the u s feminist movement on the one hand and the chicano movement on the other hand white middle class women fought for political equality women s suffrage and reproduction rights latino males fought for equal opportunity with and recognition from the dominant white u s american culture the chicana had very little interest in political rights since she was usually concerned with questions of laundry and cooking she didn t want to fight for recognition from dominant culture because she was still dominated by males of her own culture while the chicana movement achieved recognition and won many battles since then the current climate in u s politics the fear of immigrants the disregard for women s rights to their bodies shows that there is much to be done the house on mango street remains a book of utmost consequence to feminism immigration and integration what sandra cisneros captured and i will try to show is how the way we think about women influences the way we act toward them and how the same thoughts act on our self perception
