Restoring the Vocation of a Christian College examines the vocation of a Christian institution of higher learning to faithfully educate students and how individual Christian teachers and scholars can participate in this process. No matter their discipline, it surveys and engages developments over the last few decades in Christian worldview studies, Christian pedagogy, character formation, and vocational reflection through individual essays by college administrators, cocurricular staff, and faculty from a wide range of disciplines. It provides both thoughtful reflection and concrete application of these often abstract concepts to specific institutional settings and the actual classroom experience.

We've incorporated an enormous amount of feedback from over 700 reviewers, focus group, and symposium participants. The list of changes and improvements on the next few pages is testament to the many hours that reviewers spent thinking about and analyzing our earlier editions, helping us to make Financial Accounting the best book of its kind. Text was reduced in many places to simplify and clarify discussion. Feature stories, real world examples, and ratio analyses in each chapter were updated to the most recent year. Financial statement effects were highlighted in the margin of all journal entries. Chapter framework illustrations at the end of each chapter were modified to include analysis. In most chapters, five self-study multiple choice questions were added to the chapter framework illustration. In each chapter, five additional questions are available online.
