a colorfully illustrated round of the season in the garden of the best selling novelist memoirist and champion putterer with a wheelbarrow on the perimeter of israel's jezebel valley with the carmel mountains rising up in the west meir shalev has a beloved garden neither neatly organized nor well kept as he cheerfully explains often covered in mud and scrapes shalev cultivates both nomadic plants and house dwellers using his own quirky techniques he extolls the virtues of the lemon tree rescues a precious variety of purple snapdragon from the jerusalem tel aviv highway and does battle with a saboteur mole rat he even gives us his superior private recipe for curing olives informed by shalev's literary sensibility his sometime riotous humor and his deep curiosity about the land my wild garden abounds with appreciation for the joy of living quite literally on earth our borrowed time on any particular patch of it is enhanced the author reminds us by our honest respectful dealings with all manner of beings who inhabit it with us

a tale of love hardships triumph and success it is the true story of stephen schutz and susan polis schutz and their most unusual and often challenging ventures blue mountain arts greeting card company and bluemountain.com filled with practical business lessons this story is a riveting account of the mistakes susan and stephen made the solutions they designed the successes they reached and the personal and professional lessons they learned this book gives you an excellent opportunity to learn from the schutzes experiences and insights for anyone who has ever had a dream in the late 1960's susan and stephen were two idealistic recent college graduates he an artist with a princeton ph.d. in theoretical physics and she a teacher and a writer one day they decided to silk screen posters that combined their art and poetry they traveled around the country selling their posters while living out of a bright yellow pickup truck camper thus blue mountain arts was born about standing up and fighting for what you believe in in the 1980's susan and stephen designed the number one selling card line in the united states and found themselves battling one of america's largest corporations rather than watching their cards and company get destroyed the schutzes boldly went to court the precedent setting legal battle was dubbed by the media as the trial of david v. goliath an insider's look into the dot.com craze in the late 1990's susan and stephen together with their eldest son jared developed bluemountain.com a free internet greeting card service that quickly grew into one of the world's most popular websites a tender portrayal of love and life in an earlier perhaps more innocent time in a separate section susan shares her personal memories of growing up during the conservative 1950's in a small country town she speaks candidly about her college years teaching planning a commune falling in love and living amidst the political and philosophical turmoil of the 1960s in heartfelt words susan describes her romantic relationship with stephen and the births of their children a business book with a soul in sharp contrast to today's headlines of scandal and greed this is the refreshing story of how the schutzes followed their intuition stayed true to their values and ideals and created a flourishing company that has managed to stay ethical and successful at the same time better than fiction or fairy tale you will laugh and cry and experience every emotion in between as you read the amazing story of stephen and susan polis schutz and blue mountain arts book jacket
