per gli aborigeni australiani la loro terra era tutta segnata da un intrecciarsi di vie dei canti o piste del sogno un labirinto di percorsi visibili soltanto ai loro occhi erano quelle le impronte degli antenati o la via della legge dietro questo fenomeno che apparve subito enigmatico agli antropologi occidentali si cela una vera metafisica del nomadismo questo ultimo libro di bruce chatwin subito accolto con entusiasmo di critica e lettori quando è apparso nel 1987 potrebbe essere descritto anch'esso come una via dei canti romanzo viaggio indagine sulle cose ultime È un romanzo in quanto racconta incontri e avventure picaresche nel profondo dell'australia ed è un percorso di idee una musica di idee che muove tutta da un interrogativo perché l'uomo fin dalle origini ha sentito un impulso irresistibile a spostarsi a migrare e poi perché i popoli nomadi tendono a considerare il mondo come perfetto mentre i sedentari tentano incessantemente di mutarlo per provare a rispondere a queste domande occorre smuovere ogni angolo dei nostri pensieri chatwin è riuscito a farlo attirandoci in una narrazione dove i personaggi i miti le idee compongono un itinerario che ci guida molto lontano

Post-Western Histories of Architecture 2023-06-23

this book seeks to provide an alternative post western perspective to the history of contemporary architecture it puts forward detailed critical analyses of various areas of the world including europe latin america africa china australia india and japan where particular movements of architecture have developed as active political acts the authors focus on a broad spectrum of countries architectures and architects that have developed a design approach closely linked to the building context the concept of context is broad and includes various economic social cultural political and natural aspects in all cases the architects selected in this book have chosen to view context as an opportunity however each architect has considered certain specific aspects of context some have been very attentive to the social context others to material aspects or typological issues and still others to aspects related to political visions or economic factors the analysis critically highlights interesting creative and respectful design approaches towards local conditions such as sustainability in nordic europe climate conscious design in africa and the bottom up sensitivity of india the book's main aim is to retrace through both theoretical arguments and case studies the debate that focuses on politics and the environment thanks to its valuable examples this book strives to make a conscious contribution to establishing a bulwark against the current flattening out processes that architecture is experiencing this book will be of relevance to researchers teachers and students interested in the history of architecture architecture and planning and postcolonial studies aesthetics deals with art a human construction but what one experiences when placed before nature is also an aesthetic feeling the countryside is a place of reflection like no other in the art of the landscape raffaele milani interprets natural landscapes as an aesthetic category drawing from philosophical traditions literature and art he calls the reader s attention to a special consciousness originally established during the pre romantic age that has become a distinctive feature of contemporary spirituality focusing on the definition of landscapes in relation to the concepts of nature environment territory and man made settings such as gardens and cities milani examines the origins of the predilection for natural scenery in the works of landscape painters and in travel literature he addresses the distinctness of the aesthetic experience of landscapes analyses the role of aesthetic categories and explores landscape art as a medium of contemplation what emerges is an original morphology of natural beauty derived from the scrutiny of landscape elements most frequently associated with aesthetic emotion the colour of water and the sky earth and stones fire and volcanic eruptions ruins and the mountains an analysis especially relevant given the increasing fragility of our natural environment this book reviews the social role of universities in their local urban contexts and describes a number of initiatives of major interest in terms of the impact achieved the range of stakeholders involved and the significance of the university campus and teachers as agents of change it is divided into three parts the first of which draws on the international literature to provide theoretical background regarding the role of universities and university campuses as drivers of and magnets for social innovation the second and third parts each focus on four main themes of interest in the contemporary design setting urban community gardens social tv stations mobile pavilions and economic sustainability models after a theoretical overview that also illustrates international best practices it then focuses on the specific context of milan based on the pilot project recently conducted by the politecnico di milano campus incubation and implementation of social practices which won the 25th adi compasso d oro award 2018 in the social design category the book is of interest to academics students those working at public institutions and city policymakers

Art of the Landscape 2009-04-01

the book describes the experience of four social dreaming matrices held online between march and may 2020 during the first lockdown caused by the covid 19 emergency the pandemic isolated us and imposed prolonged contact with ourselves and our solitary thoughts against this backdrop there was hope for change a desire for a different kind of sociability and different forms of intimacy on the basis of this evidence our research supports the shift from experiencing trauma to reacting to trauma looking at a collective traumatic experience not only as something to be overcome but as an opportunity for a transformation that changes our mental schemes in relation to the external context we have identified social dreaming as a privileged technique to overcome a collective traumatic experience supporting its elaboration through collective feelings new connections between intuition and rational thought the discovery of community meanings the authors s thesis is that the much needed transition from magical thinking to transformative thinking takes place in a setting that is able to contain the anxieties of life s transitional phases supporting the creation of new rituals and new social bonds and sustaining the passage from me to a wider we le migrazioni contemporanee che rendono prossimo il resto del mondo hanno spezzato bruscamente il tempo della modernità quando l'altro non è più tenuto a distanza ma comincia ad apparire costantemente qui quando l'incontro tra culture storie religioni e lingue diverse non è più episodico non è limitato alle zone di contatto dell'epoca coloniale ma emerge al centro della nostra vita quotidiana nelle nostre città e nelle nostre culture la ragione occidentale deve ripensare i propri punti di riferimento le proprie fondamenta aprirsi a nuove prospettive e nuovi percorsi nell'incontro con l'alterità nel confronto con voci identità ragioni e poteri differenti il pensiero critico si trova allora costretto a riconsiderare i linguaggi che rappresentano il progresso dalla storiografia alla sociologia dalla musica alla tecnica mentre dinanzi alla minaccia dello straniero la difesa rigida di un'identità storica tramite il ricorso all'autorità delle tradizioni e delle istituzioni locali assume il senso di un miope congedo dagli inesorabili processi storici e culturali in corso come una piccola scheggia questo volume aspira al senso inaspettato dello spaesamento che emerge da questi paesaggi migratori suggerendo di instaurare un rapporto radicalmente diverso sicuramente meno arrogante e più critico con la propria formazione storico culturale da qui le nostre storie le nostre lingue e i nostri ricordi sono trasformati da punto di arrivo a punto di partenza
