The Global Cold War 2005-10-24

the cold war shaped the world we live in today its politics economics and military affairs this book shows how the globalization of the cold war during the last century created the foundations for most of the key conflicts we see today including the war on terror it focuses on how the third world policies of the two twentieth century superpowers the united states and the soviet union gave rise to resentments and resistance that in the end helped topple one superpower and still seriously challenge the other ranging from china to indonesia iran ethiopia angola cuba and nicaragua it provides a truly global perspective on the cold war and by exploring both the development of interventionist ideologies and the revolutionary movements that confronted interventions the book links the past with the present in ways that no other major work on the cold war era has succeeded in doing this comprehensive study of china s cold war experience reveals the crucial role beijing played in shaping the orientation of the global cold war and the confrontation between the united states and the soviet union the success of china s communist revolution in 1949 set the stage chen says the korean war the taiwan strait crises and the vietnam war all of which involved china as a central actor represented the only major hot conflicts during the cold war period making east asia the main battlefield of the cold war while creating conditions to prevent the two superpowers from engaging in a direct military showdown beijing s split with moscow and rapprochement with washington fundamentally transformed the international balance of power argues chen eventually leading to the end of the cold war with the collapse of the soviet empire and the decline of international communism based on sources that include recently declassified chinese documents the book offers pathbreaking insights into the course and outcome of the cold war case scenario that stalin was prepared to start world war iii and raced to build up strategic arms resulting in a struggle they did not seek out or intend their decisions stemmed from incomplete interpretations of soviet and chinese goals especially the belief that china was a kremlin puppet yet stalin mao and kim il sung all had their own agendas about which the united states lacked reliable intelligence drawing on newly available documents and memoirs including previously restricted archives in russia china and north korea wells analyzes the key decision points that changed the course of the war he also provides vivid profiles of the central actors as well as important but lesser known figures bringing together studies of military policy and diplomacy with the roles of technology intelligence and domestic politics in each of the principal nations fearing the worst offers a new account of the korean war and its lasting legacy

The Reagan Doctrine 1994-05-25

doctrines have been a prevalent form of foreign policy in u s history this study seeks to explain their origins by examining the reagan doctrine pledging aid to anticommunist guerillas in the third world based on original research and interviews with numerous individuals in the reagan administration the author applies two alternative explanations realist theory focusing on the international level of analysis and elite beliefs theory focusing on individual political leaders and their beliefs what he finds is that while each perspective is necessary to explain the reagan doctrine neither is sufficient by itself

Whose World Order? 1995-03-02

the contributors to this volume share regional perspectives on questions about peace and security economic growth and welfare and democracy and civil society in the post cold war world the conclusions are that there has been uneven globalization with strong regional variation

The Cold War 2011

the cold war lasted for more than fifty years and polarized the world rooted in political and ideological disagreements dating back to the russian revolution of 1917 the war emerged from disputes that intensified in the wake of world war ii in the cold war a history in documents second edition allan m winkler excerpts speeches by soviet premier joseph stalin and british prime minister winston churchill in order to demonstrate the growing abyss between the two political systems president harry s truman s announcement of the existence of a soviet atomic bomb and his speech to congress launching the truman doctrine testify to the gravity of the situation the complex politics of the vietnam war appear in voices of those as divergent as vietnamese nationalist ho chi minh president lyndon b johnson antiwar protestors and a participant in the my lai massacre a picture essay the atom unleashed provides a collection of photographs and cartoons tracing one of the most controversial discoveries of the twentieth century and a final chapter chronicles in detail the end of the cold war the second edition of the cold war a history in documents offers more thorough coverage of the 1970s through the 1990s the book features additional material on china and africa and several new images including a herblock editorial cartoon about the marshall plan and a french communist party poster for peace in vietnam there is also a revised note on sources and interpretation and updates to the lists of further
