Land Rover. Range Rover, Defender, Discovery, Freelander 1998 why not after all no one had ever done it before it would be one of the longest of all overland journeys half way round the world from the english channel to singapore they knew that several expeditions had already tried it some had got as far as the desrts of persia a few had even reached the plains of india but no one had managed to go on from there over the jungle clad mountains of assam and across northern burma to thailand and malaya over the last 3 000 miles it seemed there were just too many rivers and too few roads but no one really knew in fact their problems began much earlier than that as mere undergraduates they had no money no cars nothing but with a cool audacity which was to become characteristic they set to work wheedling and cajoling first they coaxed the bbc to come up with some film for a possible tv series

they then gently persuaded the manufacturers to lend them two factory fresh land rovers a publisher was even sweet talked into giving them an advance on a book by the time they were ready to go their sponsors more than 80 of them ranged from whiskey distillers to the makers of collapsible buckets in late 1955 they set off seven months and 12 000 miles later two very weary land rovers escorted by police outriders rolled into singapore to flash bulbs and champagne now fifty years on their book first overland is republished with a foreword by sir david attenborough after all it was he who gave them that film
